Meet after school at Mrs. Robert Keniston's for transportation. Plans were also made for a committee meeting to be held in August at which time we hope to have a guest speaker from Girl Scout headquarters.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

There seemed to be a little question in the minds of some of the people as to the election of the Moderator at the recent Special town Meeting. It is the opinion of both local attorneys that the election was perfectly all right.

The surveyors for the State Aid Construction department of the Highway Commission have recently been in town to lay out the State aid road for 1954. This is to start near Harold Stanley's residence and continue toward East Bethel. The joint fund is about $5,000.00.

After receiving prices from six different dealers we found Bennett's Garage gave us the lowest price for exchanging the 1949 truck for a new one. The price paid was $1,775.00. Delivery was made May 25.

Edward Birkenwald of the State Tax Assessors Office gave a very interesting talk to a rather small gathering Tuesday evening on assessments and valuations. It was Mr. Birkenwald's opinion that a tax map would be a great assistance to the Tax assessors to check locations of all property.

GOULD CAMERA CLUB'S 12th EXHIBIT COMMENCEMENT

With several features added to its already fine roster of annual attractions, the twelfth annual exhibition of the Gould Camera Club, timed to attract the many parents on campus at Commencement, will be held this year from June 6 to June 13. The main part of the extensive exhibit will be shown in Room 106 in Haneson Hall; the permanent exhibit in the basement of Holden Hall will also be open to visitors; also the Club's bulletin board in the corridor of the second floor in Haneson Hall, which is kept supplied with freshly interesting material dealing with photography during the school year, changed weekly, will be on display.

The "number one" attraction this year is a selection of beautiful color pictures from the work of Newell Green, nationally famous for his scenes of natural wonder. One wall in Room 106 will be entirely covered with 25 or more of Mr. Green's quietly beautiful pastoral work, mostly taken in Vermont, where Mr. Green, a resident of Hartford, Conn., has his summer home. Snow scenes are among the best-known and widely recognized of this man's work.

A complete record of the Academy's activities, athletic, dramatic, musical, a display of all of the new prints made by various club members this year, and a selection of the best from past years will be spread on the large center table, as well as the originals from which the Academy Herald cuts were originated.

Gayle Foster, the club's advisor, has arranged for a new feature this year: on display will be most of the equipment which produces the club's work; among these machines, so mysterious to the layman, will be an enlarger, printer, mounter, press, drying equipment, spotting equipment, printing frames, toning equipment, camera and stand together with developing tanks, and what Mr. Foster promises as "much more." Printed placards will explain the various functions, and members of the club will often be on hand to furnish further information.

In connection with the work of the Gould Camera Club it is interesting to note that the four covers of the four issues of the Maine Teachers Association magazine this year have each featured a picture of some Gould Academy student in some activity, with credit given to the Gould Camera Club, and a note on the inside cover naming the student and the activity. On the June issue appeared a fine picture of "Jerry" Davis about to hurl the discus to a new State title record some years ago.

It is emphasized that this outstanding photographic exhibition, which places Gould in the forefront of all such exhibiting institutions and of which Bethel may well be proud, is open all day and into the evening from June 6 to June 13, and a cordial invitation is extended to every Bethel man, woman and child to come and to enjoy.

Hugh Chapman has the mumps.

The regular meeting of the Bethel Auxiliary of the Rumford Community Hospital will be held at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Dana Brooks.

Mrs. Katherine Bennett of Pleasant Valley Grange attended supper and Oxford Pomona Grange at the new Frederick Roble Grange Hall in Orlfield recently.

Plan New Mass Feeding Program

Fifteen thousand women in more than 500 of Maine's 526 communities will be immediately reactivated as the result of a mass feeding agreement signed by State Civil Defense and Public Safety Director Harry A. Mapes and Dean A. L. Deering, University of Maine College of Agriculture.

Mrs. Inez G. Wing, Deputy CD Director No. 4, Welfare, recently made the announcement which solidified temporary arrangements between the cooperating agencies.

George E. Lord, Association Director of the University of Maine College of Agriculture Extension Service, said new training will consist of menu changes which experience shows wise and special meals for those with dietary diseases. Mass feeding, although mainly considered a temporary stopgap, may continue in shelters for weeks at a time during enemy attack.

Dr. Kathryn E. Briwa, University of Maine's State Nutritionist and Miss Estelle Nason, Home Demonstration Agent for University of Maine will supervise activities and work with Mrs. Wing on the State Civil Defense Staff.

Each county has a home demonstration agent, who receives mass feeding training at University of Maine under direction of Miss Nason and who, in turn, teaches other groups the methods. Mass Feeding instruction enables meals to be served in minimum time, stress of sanitation, preparation and serving.

Dr. Briwa is now working with Home Demonstration Agents on a revision of the Mass Feeding Manual.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

A surprise birthday party was given to Mrs. Guy Rice at her home Saturday evening by her daughter, Charlene, who is nine years old. She did all the writing and sending of invitations. Mrs. Rice was presented two lovely birthday cakes made by her niece, Mrs. Kenneth Swan of South Paris and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Everett Cross of Locke Mills. She had many lovely gifts and cards. After cake and ice cream for refreshments, the evening was enjoyed by playing cards.

Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and son Christopher, Bryant Pond; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swan, South Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Lapham, Locke Mills, with the guest of honor, Mrs. Guy Rice, and family. Sending gift but unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cross.

Leland Kimball who graduates from Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., was awarded the Pi Beta Phi dramatics prize for the greatest improvement in theatre arts. In the college's production of "Mr. Roberts," Mr. Kimball played the role of Gerhart.

To the Members of the Bethel Savings Bank:

You are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the members of the Bethel Savings Bank Corporation will be held at the American Legion Rooms, Bethel, Maine, on Wednesday, June 9, 1954, at 7:30 p. m., to fill vacancies caused by loss of membership or otherwise; to elect a Board of Trustees, other necessary bank officers, and to transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting.

MRS. DAVIS HONOR GUEST AT WEDNESDAY NIGHT SHOWER

Mrs. Stanley Davis was honor guest at a stork shower given by Mr. Avery Angevine and Mrs. Frank Lowell on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Angevine. Those present were: Mrs. Richard Blake, Mrs. Lee Swan, Mrs. Herbert Rowe, Mrs. Avery Angevine, Mrs. Frank Lowell, Miss Eugenia Haselton, Mrs. Malcolm Mundt, Mrs. Ernest Blake, Mrs. Donald Cross, Mrs. Donald Walker, Mrs. Lawrence Young, Mrs. James Browne, Mrs. John Trinward, Mrs. John Tobbet, Mrs. Clifford Hillier, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Robert Keniston, Mrs. Earl Davis, Mrs. Joe Perry, Mrs. Kimball Ames, Mrs. Wallace Saunders, and the honor guest, Mrs. Albert Buck, Mrs. Robert York, Mrs. Leale Davis, Mrs. Norman Dock, Mrs. Richard Davis, Mrs. Earlon Paine. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

HANOVER MAN IN ALASKA PROMOTED TO CORPORAL

Frank R. Bean, son of Wesley Bean, Hanover, Maine, recently was promoted to corporal while serving at Fort Richardson, Alaska.

Army units stationed in Alaska undergo intensive field training while guarding the northern approaches to the United States.

Corporal Bean, whose wife, Janet, lives in Mexico, Maine, is a mechanic in the Post Ordnance Company. He arrived in Alaska last June from an assignment at Atlanta General Depot, Ga.

ANOTHER POTATO SURPLUS IN THE MAKING IN MAINE

Lawrence A. Chatto, administrative officer of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in Maine, warns that 1954 potato production plans must be adjusted realistically. If not, Maine growers are almost certainly headed for serious marketing and price difficulties. Maine growers intend to plant less than last year, but not as much less as recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture, Chatto says.

To Hold CD Test On Mon., June 14

Mail leaving the State House from now until "test day" will bear the slogan "We're Ready for Operation Alert, June 14th, Are You" according to a recent announcement by State Civil Defense and Public Safety Director Harry A. Mapes.

This is to stress the date of the CD test exercise in which the public is asked to duck and cover for ten minutes at 10 a. m. Monday, June 14.

Although public participation is only for ten minutes, State CD Staffs will be on duty for 30 hours.

When sirens wall at 10 a. m. that Monday a "Test Red Alert" condition exists, Mapes explained.

"For positive identification and protection, the Eastern Air Defense Command now uses the term 'Applejack' for this alert," Mapes continued. "And, on the other end (after the ten minutes is over) ADC uses 'Snowman' for the 'White Alert'."

"The distinction is in case the 'Test' in 'Test Red, White Alert' were lost in radio or telephone transmission. If it were lost, we would believe we had the real thing," he stated in conclusion.

WOODSTOCK SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS PRESENT CLOSING PROGRAM

Raymond Richardson and Mrs. Blanche Shaw, teachers at the Seventh-day Adventist Church School, presented their pupils in a closing program and graduation May 27 at the Adventist Church. Two graduates from the eighth grade, Joyce Barrows and Peggy Chasson, were introduced to the audience by their teacher, Mr. Richardson. The girls responded with short speeches: "Why Christian Education?" by Joyce Barrows, and "What a Christian Education Means to Me," by Peggy Chasson. In the absence of the superintendent, Mr. Richardson presented the certificates of graduation.

On May 29 the congregation of the Seventh-day Adventist church had the privilege of listening again to the voice of Elder Alton Verrill who seldom is able to attend church since his illness. Elder Verrill addressed the people with a positive message, saying in part, "We have nothing to fear except as we shall forget the way in which the Lord has led us." Maynard Fleming called for him and carried him home again after the service. Mrs. Verrill accompanied him.

STATE 4-H DAY COMES JUNE 25 AT ORONO

The big event of the year to which all 4-H clubsters are invited is scheduled for Friday, June 25, at the University of Maine in Orono. It's the annual State 4-H Day. Finals of state contests in the style dress revue, dairy cattle judging, dairy foods demonstrations, and egg grading and poultry demonstrations will be held. Entertainment and tours of the campus will be other features. Several thousand are expected to attend.

The Week in Oxford County

Shirley H. Milliken, 62, was found dead Monday in his home on Main Street, Norway. He was a retired musician and lived alone.

A citizen of Buckfield reports the people of that town have banded together in the fight against the high price of coffee.

The 36th annual State convention of the Knights of Columbus was held at Rumford over last week end.

Rev. Percy L. Vernon of Poland delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Hebron Academy on Sunday afternoon.

Hotel Stone, Norway, was the scene of the meeting of the Oxford County Medical Society on Wednesday.

Miss Frances E. Porter, pastor of the United Baptist Church, Canton, since July 1953 is to be ordained to the Christian ministry at that church on Friday evening.

Celand Whitman, native of Dixfield, has been appointed instructor of speech and drama at Colby College. He is studying at Stanford University, Calif., at present.

Dr. Wilbur J. Bull of Watford has received the citation of merit, conferred by the Alumni Association of the Hartford Theological Seminary. A minister 40 years in country churches, he was the founder of the larger parish plan.

Hugh Chapman has the mumps.

The regular meeting of the Bethel Auxiliary of the Rumford Community Hospital will be held at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Dana Brooks.

Mrs. Katherine Bennett of Pleasant Valley Grange attended supper and Oxford Pomona Grange at the new Frederick Roble Grange Hall in Orlfield recently.

THE SUBVERSIVE SARDINES

The reported shipment of tons of Communist guns and ammunition to Guatemala failed to disturb the apathy of the vast majority of Americans because they still do not fully recognize the menace of the Communist conspiracy and its growing world strength. "It can't happen here" is a reaction expressing a state of mind that daily becomes more dangerous. The overthrow of Russia by the Communists 27 years ago was achieved with about the same number of Red conspirators as there are in America today.

This fact to suggest that we are threatened with a violent revolution. But 50,000 hard-core Communist troops, strategically placed in our vital industries and communication centers, could conceivably wreck the defense of our nation if we were attacked for instance by a ground-based force from any part of Central or South America. A fast-track "let them eat cake" underestimates the fact about Communism, its unchangeable objective of world domination, its tactics and its almost unlimited power to get things done.

Fantastic Methods

Herbert Philbrick who was for years an FBI counterespionage working intimately with leading American Communists, was an avowed Communist in my home recently. He illustrated the nature of the Communist subversive world, he told the story of a shipment of sardines to our east coast from Russia. The FBI sought to intercept the shipment. The sardines, in cans were being thrown overboard by the ship's crew under the pretense they were spoiled. The FBI discovered that the cans floated, and that they contained little 21-page booklets.

The booklets were printed in Spanish. Philbrick has an actual photographic copy of one. The front cover states that the booklet contains the rules for playing the American game of football. But when you open the book you find that the first paragraph still in Spanish gives specific directions for sabotaging electric power lines, transformers, cables, cables, telephones, conductors, cables, business, complete and detailed instructions on techniques of espionage as well as of sabotage.

Under the guise of football rules, the booklets are smuggled to the Communist operatives in this country in this device. Under the cover of a football rule booklet, the Communist operatives in this country in this device. Under the cover of a football rule booklet, the Communist operatives in this country in this device.

Here are the instructions, printed in Spanish: "If you have a child, when you wish to educate him, you should place one of these little booklets in the hands of his child. The child will take it to school or to the playground and when he goes to school he will show it to the teacher. He must take it to the teacher. He must take it to the teacher. He must take it to the teacher."

"The Communist instructors," Philbrick relates, "were experts. They knew their homework, believed in it, and they went to work on the minds of the children, and the minds of the young people in these cells, in order to change them from ordinary, average, decent young people into something entirely different, into hardened, steel, disciplined Communist Party members—and before me that is a transformation."

DALE CARNEGIE

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

THE first business venture of W. A. Adams, 2101 Lily Court, Sanford, Florida, was a contract for loading cars for a Growers Organization. They loaded at twenty different stations over the County and he furnished the labor. Sometimes they ordered cars late and Mr. Adams, not knowing about the order would not have enough men to take care of the loads. Then he would get calls from all over the County. The Growers would be furious, not being able to unload.

CARNEGIE

Then Mr. Adams would pick up the men needed and begin worrying and dreading the time to arrive at the station and the trouble. After a month of this, he realized that he would have to do something about it. Soon he learned that the Growers were not as angry as they acted and he stopped worrying. That lesson in not worrying came in handy two years later. He had married and was living in a house with a flat roof. One rainy night about twelve o'clock he and his wife were awakened by a terrific noise in the kitchen. It sounded as though someone had dropped the electric stove while trying to get it through the door. His wife almost choked as she whispered, "Do something." Not having a gun for protection nor even a flashlight, he finally managed to ease out of bed and lock the bedroom door. He had just about quieted his wife when there was another terrible noise and he could even hear the kettle roll across the floor. Naturally he had another hard time quieting his wife and they spent the rest of the time until daylight waiting for someone to try to get into the bedroom. About dawn he unlocked the door and found a leaky roof had made all the plaster fall—most of it on the stove.

Economic Highlights . . . . .

Happenings That Affect the Future of Every Individual — National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare

Big news comes hot and heavy these days. So, inevitably, many important developments that would make the headlines in quieter eras are obscured. This isn't the fault of the newspaper and news magazine editors and the radio and TV reporters. There simply isn't enough space and time to go around adequately.

To take one example, it's probable that relatively few people know how well, or how badly, the President's "Umbrella" legislative program has been faring. It has been overshadowed to the point of disappearance by such attention-demanding events as the Indo-China tragedy, the bitter McCarthy-Army fight, the imbroglio at Geneva, and the Supreme Court's historic decision in the school segregation case.

Yet that program—negatively or positively, directly or indirectly—will affect every farm, family and business in the country.

To begin with, there is no chance and never was that Congress will approve all of the program. For one thing, it is too extensive to be debated and digested in one year, and for another it contains great new departures in policy which inevitably stir up strong opposition. Two prime examples of this can be cited. One is the proposal for Taft-Hartley changes, including the plan for having the rank and file of union membership vote on proposed strikes. This has been buried in the Congressional deep freeze. The other is Secretary Benson's special project grants, given on the basis of unusual problems and opportunities.

SCANNING THE NEWS

THE Department of Health, Education and Welfare celebrated its first birthday as a full-blown cabinet department in April, but its administrators came very old programs—the Public Health Service, for instance, had its start in 1789.

The past year has seen a thorough review in HEW of the procedures under which these programs are carried out, and Secretary Oveta C. Hobby has asked Congress for authority to make important changes in the means by which grants in aid for a variety of purposes are made to the states.

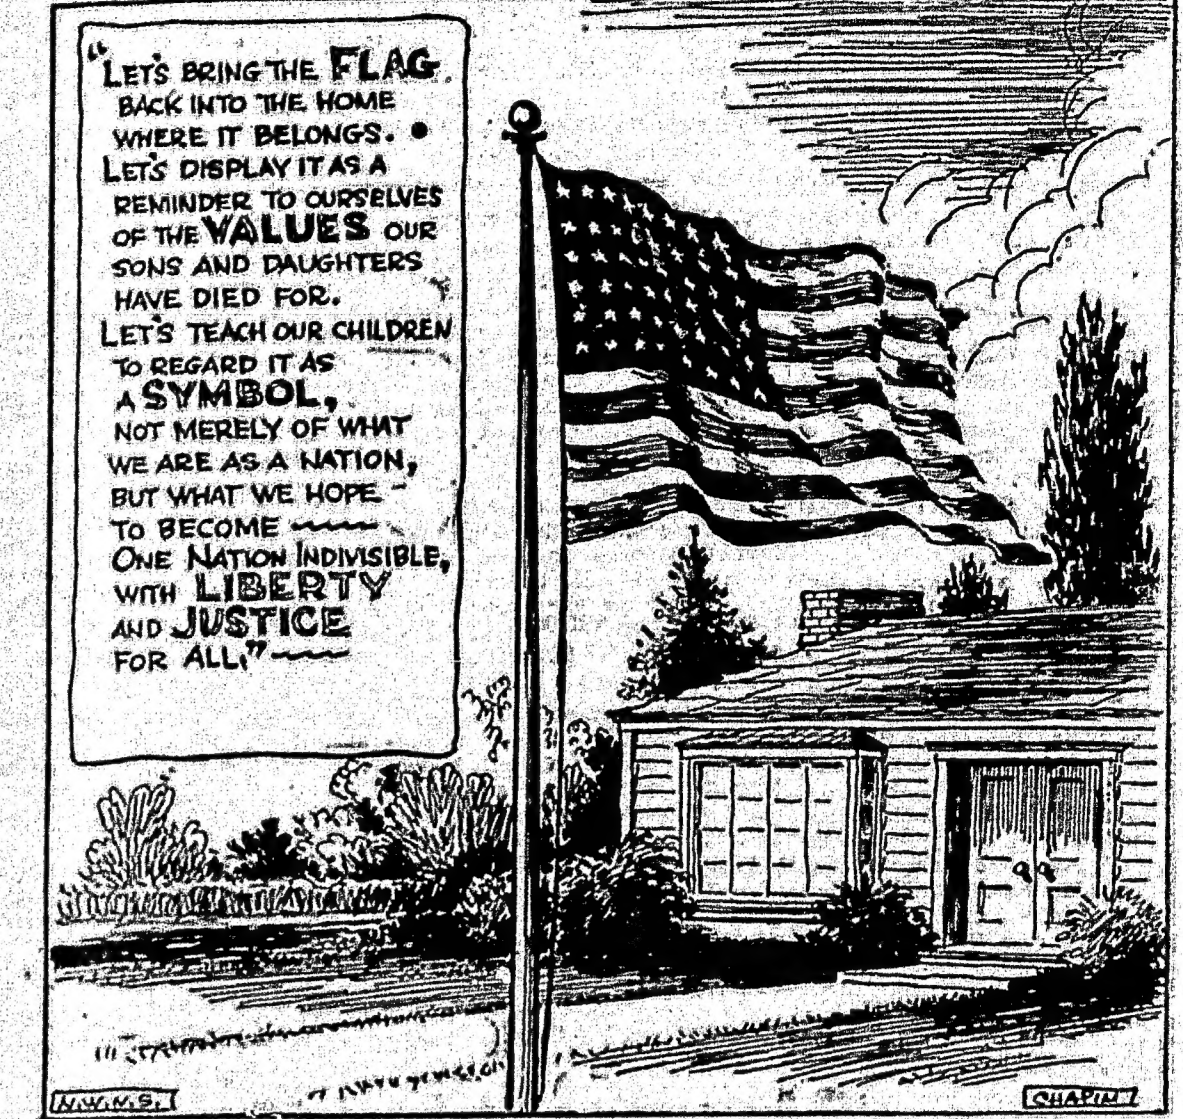

At present, the Public Health Service makes six separate grants to state health authorities, conveying earmarked funds to be used for general health, tuberculosis control, venereal disease control, mental health, cancer control, and communicable disease control. Money given for one of these purposes cannot be used for another.

HEW claims that this earmarking introduces rigidity into state health plans, leaves available dollars from going as far as they would if state health authorities had more freedom in use of the funds. Authority was requested to make a unified public health grant to the states, to be allocated at their discretion.

HEW's new grants-in-aid seem likely to be unified, with funds supplied as: Support grants, to help maintain basic services, given on the basis of financial need; extension and improvement grants, given on the basis of population; and bonus grants, given on the basis of special projects.

FLY YOUR FLAG

LET'S BRING THE FLAG BACK INTO THE HOME WHERE IT BELONGS. LET'S DISPLAY IT AS A REMINDER TO OURSELVES OF THE VALUES OUR SONS AND DAUGHTERS HAVE DIED FOR. LET'S TEACH OUR CHILDREN TO REGARD IT AS A SYMBOL, NOT MERELY OF WHAT WE ARE AS A NATION, BUT WHAT WE HOPE TO BECOME — ONE NATION INDIVISIBLE, WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL.

PAIGN issue next November, with the Republicans saying it is the proper attitude under our Constitutional system and the Democrats saying it is a sign of weakness.

WORTH REPEATING

"Unfortunately, the mention of the need for 'maximum efficiency and economy' in government has become somewhat of a shopworn cliché," Greenwich (Conn.) Times.

"Typical American retailers, particularly in the mass distribution field, after they pay their taxes and other costs, commonly have left as profit, but two or three cents out of each dollar's worth of goods sold," Montpelier (Vt.) Argus.

"A Soviet worker supporting a family of four now must spend 78 per cent of his 48-hour work-week just to buy the same amount of food he bought in 1928. And if a Soviet worker doesn't like it, there is no place for him to go except to Siberia," Fall River (Mass.) Herald News.

"Socialism is socialism, no matter what kind of government is responsible. And socialism, as modern history so grimly proves, inevitably leads to communism and the destruction of all liberty—civil as well as economic, individual as well as corporate," St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Caledonian Record.

"With the national debt almost at the present legal limit, and with government spending still exceeding income, it's high time we thought seriously of guarding the union from financial chaos. And to do that we must not only demand economy in government, but must cheerfully accept the effects of economy on ourselves," Montpelier (Vt.) Argus.

"As a purely practical matter, it is of the highest importance that individuals and enterprises be encouraged to spend and expand and progress at times, such as the present, when business activity is leveling off. Elimination of the capital gains tax and double taxation of dividends would be a powerful shot in the arm to the whole economy," Melrose (Mass.) Free Press.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

Bellingham, Wash., Herald: "Nobody can be sure in advance of what the near future holds, but there is comfort in the fact that 'risk capital'—the kind that takes a chance in helping to make a profitable property—has not succumbed to the defeatist theory that good times depend on government spending of money which the government does not have."

Hillsboro, Ore., Argus: "A subcommittee, following extensive hearings on the commercial-type activities of the federal government, urged that the federal government get out and keep out of competitive business operation. There is much merit in the suggestion because it is American free enterprise that has given this country and its people so much."

West Point, Miss., Daily Times Leader: "For many years we have been demanding more from government—and now we are reaping the necessary harvest. It was never intended that the government should support its citizens. In fact, it is our obligation to support the government."

Saranac, Mich., Advertiser: "The hope of reward—profits—makes men take risks, spurs them to think, plan, work. The hope of profits has helped build our economic system of 4,000,000 business and industrial firms."

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH

The soft coal industry operates a cooperative research agency. As of a recent date, it was announced that this agency has some 15 major projects underway.

The significance of this idea in the light of coal's efforts to better its competitive position in relation to other fuels; to produce a product which is more perfectly suited to the needs of various kinds of consumers; to reduce its operating costs; to find new uses for coal; to make sure that the industry will be ready for the very greatly increased demand that is expected in the next quarter-century, and provide a living wage for itself.

Most of us, probably, think of coal as something which has remained unchanged through the centuries. That is a highly erroneous concept. Today coal is "tailored" so that it may do the best possible job in each specific application. As a result of research both within and outside the industry, coal has become a raw material from which chemistry produces fabrics, plastics, medicines, and hundreds of other valuable commodities in general use. Other advanced research projects are producing motor fuel from coal, and revolutionary methods of using coal in locomotives which enable it to meet diesel on even terms.

So it goes, and the list is long. To coal, as to many other progressive industries, the laboratory and the scientist are all-important.

"Times haven't changed so very much. It's still up to free individuals and private enterprise to keep on building this country," —Dover (N. H.) Foster's Democrat.

"The widespread development of research as an adjunct to industry is regarded by many experts as the most distinctive development of the last 25 years in this field in which the nation long has led the world," —Boston (Mass.) Globe.

LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

"Sense versus Nonsense" will be the subject to be perused in today's seminar. And if enough folks get interested and will get the answer along to their wranglers ensconced there in Old Spend-ill-it-hurts-town, amongst the Potomac, this seminar could pay good dividends for the effort.

I tee-off on nonsense—nonsense seeming to have the upper hand in so many diverse places. If we can root out the nonsense we will get back to gumption and horse sense quick. For the champion frivolity and humbug performance that we put up with I enter the continuing of payments by Uncle Sam to boost production of wheat, peanuts, cotton and etc., as the stored items pile mile high. For storing of same, costs add up to $500,000.00 per day. That is what the paper says—$500,000.00 a day for storage. And the items stored—and tied up and deteriorating—amount to 6 billion and is gaining on us.

Congress does not seem to catch on that everybody—100 per cent—is a consumer. If Mr. and Mrs. Consumer would pick up their ball-point and tell their befuddled congressman what they plan on doing next autumn, at voting time, and how far will fly, the "prop fundidities" would cease. A congressman can smell a vote miles away—and then some. And tell your man to lend an ear to that Utah gentleman, Mr. Benson of the Dept. of Agriculture. That gentleman of esteem from the "land of the saints" has verbiage and balance—he is of no run-of-the-mill type.

Yours with the low down, JO SERRA

The Citizen

Thursday, June 3
He ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. (James 1:22) Read James 1:19-27.

JAMES thus recognized a human weakness—our keenness only to hear the Word of God. We do not act upon it. It is, therefore, no wonder that the whole epistle leads up to this great teaching of our text.

Thank God that the faith we profess and follow does not give priority to hearers who are hearers but nothing more. Christianity is not passive. It is active and dynamic. A Christian cannot just listen. Neither can absence of evil from our lives alone make us true followers of Christ. Not being one of the thieves who stripped the man of his clothes, wound, and departed, leaving him half dead would not entitle us to the Lord's praise. We must be good Samaritans.

Passive listening should not be confused with purposeful silence. Silence is positive and can be most active at times. Christ held His peace before false witnesses in the courts of Calaphas and Pilate. Yet, while maintaining silence, He never spoke louder and with greater effect.

Prayer
Our heavenly Father, grant us the strength that we may be doers of Thy Word; that our faith in Thee may find expression this day in everything we say and do. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

GOULD ACADEMY

Gould Needs Football Dates

The newest change in the MPA Football Rating System says "To be entitled to championship consideration a school must compete with a minimum of five other schools within or above its own class."

Thinking there may be a little reshuffling of schedules by some schools who wish to qualify, Gould Academy, a Class "FF" school, has these open dates to offer: Saturday, September 25th and Saturday, October 30th.

Gould now has only one game on its schedule with a Class "FF" rated team. This is a not a desire on the part of the school to become eligible for championship consideration but simply an attempt to complete the 1954 schedule. The following is the schedule as of today.

September 25 open
October 2 South Paris at Bethel
October 9 Gould at Norway
October 16 Lyndon Institute at Bethel

October 23 Mexico at Bethel
October 30 open
November 6 Fryeburg at Bethel

The Girls Athletic Association Outing will be held at Hauling Camp at Lake Umbagog in Upton, June 5. Retiring and newly elected officers and girls in the school who have earned their "C" for participating in the athletic program are eligible to attend the outing. It is expected that well over 50 girls will participate.

The Gould JV's defeated the Hebron JV's by a score of 22-3 in a game played at Hebron on May 28. Batteries for Gould were Newell, Russell and H. Reid; for Hebron IC Smith and P. Smith.

The Gould Varsity defeated Mexico at Mexico by a score of 7-4 in an abbreviated game called after one out in the 6th inning because of rain last Saturday afternoon. Fouls with 4 hits including two triples and two singles, took batting honors for the Huskies. Howard Rolfe was the starting pitcher for Gould and was relieved by Merle White in the second inning. Vern Corbitt did the catching all the way. The batteries for Mexico were Brown and Bordeaux.

The Gould JV's met defeat at the hands of the Rumford JV's by a score of 6-1 in a game played at Rumford on Tuesday, June 1. Batteries for Rumford, Shea and Paul; for Gould, Newell and Russell.

Gould Repeats Track Victory in Oxford County Meet

Gould Academy successfully defended its Oxford County track title Saturday afternoon at the Fryeburg Fairgrounds oval. The well balanced Huskies piled up 557 points to 441 for runnerup Stephen High of Rumford. Host Fryeburg Academy was a close third with 372 points and Mexico brought up the rear with six points.

Dick Trimback set the pace for the winners with first places in the sprints, a tie for first in the low hurdles, and second in the broad jump. Teammate Carman Pettapiece doubled in the shot and the javelin.

Fryeburg's Rayfield Payne provided the meet's high spot with a sensational finish which nipped Rumford's Clyde Kerr in the mile 11:42 clocking established a new meet record.

Individual winners for the runnerup Panthers were Tom Fallon in the 440, Vic Zala in the high jump and Dave Turner in the high hurdles.

The Huskies are given a good chance to retain their State Class

B Track crown at Waterville this week.

Gould Defeats Fryeburg, 8 to 2

Gould Academy drove out 16 hits today in beating Fryeburg Academy, 8-2, behind Mead's steady five hit pitching. In both the third and sixth innings, Gould bunched four hits and an error to score three runs.

Melville led the Gould sticklers with two singles and a double in four tries. Fryeburg centerfielder Harvey made several neat catches.

Gould Academy was undefeated in League play this spring.

Gould Academy 103 003 001-8
Fryeburg Academy 000 000 110-2
Mead and Corium; Kelsman and Blake.

The Camera Club Annual Show will open on Sunday, June 6, in room 106, in Hanescom Hall. The public is cordially invited to view the work of all club members during the week of June 6-13.

WOOL FOR 1954 MAINE POOL TO BE GATHERED SOON

Wool for the 1954 Maine Wool Pool, under sponsorship of the Maine Sheep Breeders' Association, will be picked up for delivery to the Central Wool Marketing Corporation at Boston, according to Sam F. Dorrance, the Maine Department of Agriculture's Animal Husbandry specialist.

The Association will advance approximately $20,000.00 to individual sheepmen in part payment for the pooled wool. The balance will be paid after grading at Boston, Dorrance said.

The advance payment is at the rate of 45 cents per pound. Last year the consignors realized an average of 54.3 cents per pound, the lowest price received was 40 cents.

In commenting on the pool arrangement, Dorrance said it would "be advantageous for each consignor to pool his wool in the best possible condition. This can be accomplished by tying fleeces with paper wool twine, by removing all taglocks, keeping free from chaff and dirt, by shearing only when fleeces are absolutely dry, and storing in a dry place."

Pick-up will be made at Norway Fair Grounds, Tuesday, June 22, 9-12 a. m. and 1-2 p. m.

Anyone unable to deliver his wool to the pooling centers may ship it by truck to the Maine Sheep Breeders' Association, Vassalboro, Maine.

WORTH REPEATING

"What is the objection to turning labor legislation over to the states? One contention is that it would mean 48 sets of labor laws, which would be confusing. It is also confusing to have 48 sets of laws dealing with the operation of trucks on state highways. It is confusing to have 48 sets of laws dealing with commercial transactions." — Boston Sunday Herald.

NEW HOME GARDEN INSECT-DISEASE CONTROL GUIDE ISSUED

"Home Garden Insect and Disease Control," Maine Extension Service Circular 267, is now off the presses at the University of Maine.

Copies are available from county agents or by writing to the Bulletin Office, Agricultural Extension Service, University of Maine, Orono.

Robert W. Paulson, Extension Service Vegetable Specialist of the University of Maine, is the author of the new circular, which replaces Circular 230 put out more than three years ago. Helping in making recommendations for the new circular were Merle T. Hillborn and John H. Hawkins, both of the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station.

The circular includes control measures for most common insect pests and plant diseases found in the Maine home vegetable garden. The publication has sections of general comment, troubles common to many vegetables, materials for pest control, and the chart listing controls for garden pests and diseases. The chart is so printed that it may be posted on the wall for handy reference.

General instructions for pest control are to mow or clean up grass and weeds near the garden; clean up around stone walls; plow under or destroy all plant refuse and rubbish so that there will be no cover for insect pests.

One of the sublimest things in the world is plain truth. —Bulwer

V. A. NEWS LETTER

The Veterans Administration announced this week some of its rules and regulations to determine whether Korean veterans already are qualified in the courses they apply for under the education and training provisions of the Korean GI Bill.

Under the law, the veteran must select his final goal before entering training, according to M. L. Stoddard, Manager, Veterans Administration Center, Togus.

It may be an educational goal, such as the attainment of a college degree; a professional one such as law or medicine or a vocational goal such as a machinist or draftsman.

Stoddard said the veteran must list his previous training and experience on the application form so that VA can rule whether he is already qualified for the objective selected.

For example, if he already is trained as a bookkeeper or accountant, VA will not approve a school course in bookkeeping.

A veteran who applies for a low-college trade or technical course that consists largely of shop practice will be denied training if:

1. He has previously completed a similar school course for the same occupation.
2. He has at any time in the past held a job as a qualified workman in the same trade for which he requests training. However, if the new occupation is at a higher level, he would be permitted to train for it.
3. He has completed an on-the-job training course which qualified him for his desired objective, either in the locality where training was completed or where it is to be taken.

ORCHARD GRASS IS GOOD FOR PASTURE, SILAGE

Maine dairymen have found that orchard grass makes exceptionally good grass silage and summer pasturage, reports Ralph Corbett, Extension dairyman. It's a very productive grass which does well in hot weather. It responds well to heavy applications of nitrogen.

SERVING GREENS TO THE FAMILY

One of the simplest ways to make use of the spring greens that are so plentiful right now is to serve them cooked until just tender, with salt, pepper, and butter or margarine. This is good and fills the vegetable slot in the menu, but there are other ways to serve those succulent vegetables, too.

First off, you can use them in salads. The small, tender leaves are good in a tossed salad, or you might use the greens with a vinaigrette sauce consisting of some bacon and vinegar, and heat this so you wilt the greens when you pour the sauce over it.

Then use a little thought when you flavor the cooked greens. Many people like the flavor combination of greens and bacon or ham. So use a little bacon or ham fat in cooking your greens, or small bits of crisp bacon or chopped ham served with the greens. Nutmeg and kale are a good combination.

Greens may be pushed through a strainer and the resulting puree used in many ways, too. Use it as a base on which to cook eggs in the oven. The combination of eggs and greens is good. Use it in a casserole, by mixing with hard-boiled eggs, cheese sauce, and top it off with bread crumbs.

Every violation of truth is a stab at the health of human society. —Emerson
